CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS, AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the inness, enables us to offer our services with confidence sured saves nearly one half of the amount charged to the public. feb 19—tf by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE.

This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over seventy thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having increased our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors hope and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company.

BY-AND-BY.

(An affectionate response to Mrs. M. D. Williams, of Webster, Michigan.) BY SARAH J. C. WHITTLESEY. When God was forming the heart of man, The angel of Mercy beheld the plan, And over the harp of a thousand strings,

She drew her snowy and shining wings, And craved the boon of her gracious Lord, Of tuning one silvery spirit chord. And Eden's sunlight and Eden's shade, Were flooded with music the new harp made, But not a melody-note was flung From the secret string that the Angel strung, Till sorrow had silenced the joyous lay

That gushed from the heart, in its gladsome day When Justice shut on the mourning pair, The gates of Eden so fragrant and fair, Sweet Mercy followed on noiseless wings, And touched the slender and silent strings. And the exiles heard with a brightening eye,

The first sweet anthem of "By-Ano-By And down from Eden have drifted along, The golden notes of the blessed song, That the rosy fingers of Mercy play On the suffering Heart, in the darkest day; We bless the Angel of pitying eye, For her soothing murmur of "By-And-By." Dear sister, the Earth is a yard of tombs, The Heart is a garden of fading blooms, We see them falling, the loving, the dear, And passing away from the pathway here; We long, sometimes, for the graveless shore, Where those we have cherished have gone before, And Mercy plays, with a cheering eye, The tune on the heart-string: "By-And-By!"

They're passing away! they're passing away! From a dim earth-night to a heavenly day, And leave us to mourn, by the marble urn, Of joys departed, that never return! And hearts would break with a weight of woe, As memory wanders the "long ago, If the angel of Mercy, with pitying eye,
Played not on the heart-string, "By-And-By!"
